

British Columbia List of Projects

Healing Our Spirit - $522,374 for two projects which implement research and community health initiatives to assist efforts to combat HIV/AIDS in British Columbia's Aboriginal communities. (Contact: Ken Clement - 604-983-8774)

British Columbia Centre for Excellence in HIV/AIDS - $334,400 to assist the ongoing activities of the centre located at St. Paul's Hospital, including ongoing national coordination, leadership and education in HIV and rehabilitation. (Contact: Dr. Michael O'Shaughnessy - 604-806-8478)

BC Centre for Disease Control Society (BCCDC) - $90,000 to help support BCCDC's crucial role in refining and disseminating accurate health information in British Columbia - particularly as it relates to hepatitis C. (Contact: John Hamilton - 604-660-4724)

University of British Columbia - $90,000 for a two national health PhD fellowships in HIV/AIDS research related to treatment and the use of alternative medicines. (Contact: Evan Wood - 604-736-3531 and Paula Karina Alice Braitstein - 604-683-4177)

Carnegie Community Centre Association - $85,000 to assist the project Street Program with the City of Vancouver, Vancouver/Richmond Health Board and other community partners within the spirit of the Vancouver Agreement. (Contact: Michael Clague - 604-665-2220)

Prostitution Alternatives Counselling and Education Society - $80,000 for a two-year project to help sex trade workers who engage in injection drug use in the Greater Vancouver Regional District. (Contact: Raven Bowen - 604-872-7651)

Simon Fraser Society for Community Living - $70,000 to help develop the Tri-Cities Preschool Project aimed at assisting low-income families and early childhood development in Coquitlam, Port Coquitlam and Port Moody. (Contact: Christine Scott - 604-525-9494)

Youth Community Outreach AIDS Society - $67,500 for health promotion and hepatitis C prevention activities in partnership with the Youth Community Outreach AIDS Society and the Vancouver Area Network of Drug Users. (Contact: J. Evin Jones - 604-688-1441)

Portland Hotel Society - $46,926 to help identify trends in drug use and risk behaviours with a view to formulating improved harm reduction strategies. (Contact: Gordon Roe - 604-872-0975)

BC Persons With AIDS Society - $60,000 to help create a regional advisory committee and develop an educational program aimed at HIV/AIDS prevention. (Contact: Ross Harvey - 604- 681-2122)

Canadian Cancer Society, British Columbia/Yukon - $54,000 to help ensure women living with breast cancer in British Columbia receive accurate and current breast cancer information. The project is a partnership with the Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation and many other organizations in the province. (Contact: Deborah Rusch - 604-675-7124)

The Red Road HIV/AIDS Network Society - $50,000 to help develop Aboriginal technical and health research capacity as well as improving the management of Aboriginal HIV/AIDS prevention programming and service coordination. (Contact: Art Zoccole - 604-983-8774)

La Fédération des Francophones de la Colombie-Britannique - $40,000 to help increase the capacity of British Columbia francophones to access health information and services in French. (Contact: Serge Corbeil - 604-732-1420)

Asian Society for the Intervention of AIDS - $20,000 to help prepare women's health materials in a way that is culturally sensitive to Vancouver's Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Vietnamese and Tagalog communities. (Contact: Toni Ho - 604-669-5567)

Vancouver Area Network of Drug Users (VANDU) - $15,000 to help VANDU build their capacity in organizational development as an important part of Health Canada's commitment to supporting a strong community-based response to the challenges of HIV/AIDS. (CONTACT: Ann Livingston - 604-683-8595)

AIDS Vancouver - $15,000 to help support the collection of outcome information in the context of community-based HIV/AIDS work. (Contact: Andrew Johnson - 604-893-2226)

Community Based Research Centre Society - $14,533 to develop health promotion and HIV/AIDS prevention activities in partnership with AIDS service organizations and community researchers. (Contact: Dr. Rick Marchand - 604-736-9150)